THIS LEASE made this 20th day of July between the President of India (hereinafter called the Lessor which expression shall, unless the context requires another and different meaning, include his successors and assigns) of the one part and Bhupwadas Malhotra Ramesh Sahu of 1. Thakur Das

of A/45 Defence Colony, N. Delhi

(hereinafter called the "the Lessee" which expression shall be taken to mean and include the said his heirs, executors, administrators, representatives and permitted assigns except when the context requires another and different meaning) of the other part;

WHEREAS the Lessor has agreed to demise to the Lessee the land described in the Schedule hereunder written upon the terms and conditions hereinafter appearing and contained;

NOW THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH that in consideration of the payments hereinafter referred to and of the covenants by the Lessee hereinafter contained the Lessor DOth demise upto the Lessee all that piece of land described in the Schedule hereunder together with all rights, easements and appurtenances to the same belonging save and except all mines and mineral products, buried treasure, coal, petroleum, oil and quarries whatsoever in under or within the said land with liberty for the Lessor and his lessees, licensees, agents and workmen and all other persons acting on his behalf to dig, search for, obtain and carry away the same on making reasonable compensation to the Lessee on account of any disturbance or damage that may be caused thereby to the surface of the said land and that such compensation shall in case of dispute be determined by an officer appointed by the Lessor for this purpose, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the provisions of the Land Acquisition Acts or regulations for the time being in force, whose decision thereon shall be final.

TO HOLD THE said land unto the Lessee for the term of 99 years commencing from.....

yielding and paying therefor the rent as follows:-

(a) For the first five years of the lease commencing from 14x4- April 1955 to 14x4- April 1959 an annual ground rent payable in advance (a proportionate part of the said ground rent will be payable for the fraction of a year) determined in the manner following by an officer appointed in this behalf by the Lessor. The said officer shall assess the cost of the land to Government. Such cost shall consist of the amounts spent on the acquisition and development of the land and other incidental expenses. The ground rent shall be a sum equivalent to the interest on the said cost calculated at the Government borrowing rate of interest prevailing at the date of this lease (in such calculation fraction of a pie shall be omitted).

Until the ground rent is so determined the lessee shall pay a fixed ground rent of Rs. 68/6/- per year and on the determination of the ground rent as aforesaid the amount paid by the lessee shall be adjusted by the payment by him of any additional ground rent or, as the case may be, by the refund to him of any excess ground rent paid by him.

(b) For the next 15 years, in addition to the ground rent referred to in (a) above, half of the cost of the said land to Government as determined under (a) above. The said cost shall be payable in 15 annual equal instalments, the first of such payment to be made on the 14x4- day of April 1960 and every subsequent payment to be made on the 14x4- day of April of each subsequent year with interest on the cost of the land so determined or the balance thereof remaining unpaid for the time being at the rate of 3 1/2% per cent. per annum computed on the 14x4- day of April 1961 and payable on the 14x4- day of April each year the first of such payment to be made on the 14x4- day of April and in case and so long as the said cost or any part thereof remain unpaid the lessee shall pay to the lessor interest on the said cost or on so much part thereof as shall for the time being remain unpaid at the same rate aforesaid by equal annual payments as aforesaid; Provided always that in the event of default being committed by the lessee for a period exceeding fourteen days in the payment of any instalment or interest as aforesaid the whole of the said cost or such portion thereof as may then remain due and payable together with the interest thereon as aforesaid shall forthwith become due and payable by the lessee to the lessor.

(c) In the 21st year of the lease the ground rent shall be revised by an Officer appointed in this behalf by the Lessor. The revised ground rent shall be a sum equivalent to the interest calculated at the Government borrowing rate of interest prevailing on the first of April of that year, on the market value of the said land (such market value to be determined by the said officer) on the said date (in such calculations fraction of pie shall be omitted). The ground rent so revised shall hold good for the remaining period of the lease. The ground rent shall be payable annually in advance on the 1st of April each year. (A proportionate part of the said ground rent shall be payable for the fraction of a year.)

The determination or decision of an officer appointed by the Lessor in each of the above cases shall be final and binding upon the parties.

I. The Lessee doth to the intent that the burden of the covenants may run with the said land and may bind any permitted assignee thereof hereby covenant with the Lessor as follows:—

- (i) to pay the amounts on the days and in the manner hereinbefore appointed for payment thereof and also to pay all taxes, rates and assessments that now are or may hereafter during the said term be imposed upon the said land or any building or upon the Lessor or the Lessee, his permitted sub-lessee or assignee in respect thereof, under any enactment for the time being in force;
- (ii) to erect upon the said land and at all times during the said term to maintain thereon a good and substantial building according to the bye-laws, rules and regulations framed by the local authority having jurisdiction in the area in which the said land is situated (the expression local authority shall include the Delhi Improvement Trust) and in accordance with any directions of an Officer appointed by the Lessor in this behalf or in accordance with any other law, rule or regulation for the time being applicable thereto in respect of materials to be used in and the method of construction of buildings in the quarter in which the said land is situated. That the Lessee shall submit plans, sections, elevations and specifications for the construction of the building to be erected upon the said land for the approval of an officer appointed by the Lessor in this behalf, in duplicate, and shall not start the work of construction unless and until the approval of the said officer has been obtained in writing. The Lessee shall not make any alterations and/or additions to the building so approved by the said officer either externally or internally without first obtaining the permission of the said officer in writing;
- (iii) to intimate to the Lessor within one year of the completion of the building the total cost incurred by him in the construction of the building. The Lessor after receipt of this information may cause the correctness of the information supplied to be verified and re-assessed. The cost of construction so verified and re-assessed shall be deemed to be the true cost of construction of the building for the purposes of this lease and the Lessee shall be bound by such verification and re-assessment;
- (iv) before the buildings on the said land are occupied or ready for occupation to connect the same with the gravitating sewers and to lay on water to the said buildings, in the manner directed by an officer appointed by the Lessor in this behalf and to employ a plumber duly approved by the said officer to make and do all such connections and works; provided that when the sewage or water systems are not extended to the said quarter at the time the said buildings are occupied or ready for occupation, the Lessee shall, within 30 days from the extension of the sewage and water systems to the said quarter, connect gravitating sewers and lay on water in the manner and according to the instructions and through the agency above-mentioned;
- (v) to complete the said buildings within one year from the date of this lease (which period of one year may from time to time be extended by an Officer appointed by the Lessor in this behalf at his discretion) to the satisfaction of an officer appointed by the Lessor in this behalf and maintain the premises and all buildings thereon in a sanitary condition according to the directions of the said officer;
- (vi) not to erect more than one building upon the said land and except such outhouses and servants' quarters as may be approved by an officer appointed by the Lessor in this behalf;
- (vii) not to use the said land and buildings that may be erected thereon during the said term for any purpose other than the purpose of constructing a house without the previous consent in writing of an officer appointed by the Lessor in this behalf; provided that lease shall become void if the land is used for any purpose other than that for which the lease is granted not being a purpose subsequently approved by the said officer;
- (viii) during the first five years of the lease, not to sublet or to sub-divide the said land or to part with the possession thereof, or transfer by sale, mortgage, gift or otherwise the said land or building erected thereon or on any part thereof, without the prior permission of the Lessor in writing;

PROVIDED however that it shall be lawful for the lessee with the previous approval of the Lessor in writing to mortgage his interest in the said land as well as his interest in any building constructed by him or be constructed by him on the said land as security in respect of any monies advanced by a scheduled Bank or Insurance Company for the purpose of constructing a building on the said land, but in every such case the lessee shall be bound by the following conditions:—

- (1) The amount to be borrowed by the Lessor on the security of the demised land or the building standing thereon shall not exceed 50 per cent. of the premium paid by the Lessor in respect of the said land and 50 per cent. of the true cost of construction of the building.
- (2) If for any reason the security given by the Lessor to his mortgagee becomes enforceable within a period of five years from the date of the commencement of the lease, the lease granted to the Lessee under these presents shall, at the option of the Lessor, forthwith stand determined, and the Lessor shall be entitled to re-enter on the demised land and resume possession of the said land together with any building standing thereon; and in the event of the Lessor exercising the aforesaid option of resumption of the land and the building thereon, the Lessor's liability for payment of compensation shall be limited to: (a) true cost of construction of the building less depreciations calculated according to the Income-tax law for the time being in force and (b) refund of ninety-five per cent. of the premium, if any, paid by the Lessee to the Lessor.

(3) The compensation payable as aforesaid shall be apportioned between the Lessee and his mortgagee in manner following, that is to say:—

- (a) Payment of monies due to the mortgagee in discharge of the mortgage costs and other monies if any, due under the mortgage to the mortgagee; and
- (b) the residue, if any, to the Lessor;
- (ix) not to do or permit anything in or upon the demised premises or any part thereof which may be or become a nuisance, annoyance or cause damage to occupiers of other property in the neighbourhood;
- (x) subject to the provisions of sub-clause (viii) to register all changes in the possession of the whole of the said land or of the building thereon whether by transfer, succession or otherwise in the register kept in the office of the local authority having jurisdiction in the area in which the said land is situated (the expression local authority shall include the Delhi Improvement Trust) for this purpose within one calendar month from the respective dates of such changes (and if such changes are registered in the local sub-registry under the Indian Registration Act, 1908, within one calendar month from the date of registration in such sub-registry) and if the Lessee shall without sufficient cause neglect to register such changes in the manner aforesaid with the Lands Officer appointed by the local authority for this purpose, the Government may impose on him for each such case of neglect a penalty not exceeding Rs. 100/- and the Government may in addition to the other remedies available to it under these presents enforce the payment of such penalties in the same manner as in the case of arrears of land revenue;
- (xi) that all persons acting under the orders of Government shall be at liberty at all reasonable time in the day time during the said term to enter upon the said land or any buildings that may be erected thereon for any purpose connected with the lease;
- (xii) at the determination of the tenancy to yield up the demised premises with all buildings erected thereon and landlords fixtures thereto, provided that the Lessor shall pay to the Lessee the value of the said buildings and fixtures at the date of determination of the tenancy, such value to be determined in the absence of agreement, by a sole Arbitrator agreed upon by both the parties or in the absence of such agreement by two arbitrators, one to be appointed by each party. The provisions of the Arbitration Act, 1910, and any statutory modification thereof shall apply to any such arbitration;
- (xiii) if during the period of the lease the premises are required for a public purpose or for any administrative purpose by the Government the Lessor shall at the expiry of a notice of fifteen days to the effect that the said premises are required for such purpose to be served upon the Lessee by an officer appointed by the Lessor in this behalf, be at liberty to take possession of the land together with all building, structures and appurtenances. The Lessee shall be entitled to compensation in respect of the buildings and structures on the demised land but he shall not be entitled to any compensation for his interest in the said land except refund of a proportion of the premium. The compensation payable under this clause shall, in case of dispute, be determined by the Lessor or by such officer as he may appoint for the purpose, as nearly as may be, in accordance with the provisions of the Land Acquisition Act or regulations for the time being in force relating to the same and the decision of the Lessor or such officer shall be final and conclusive;
- (xiv) any sum of money due to or claimable by the Lessor in respect of the land hereby demised shall be recoverable by the Lessor as an arrear of land revenue.

II. Provided always that if the payments hereinbefore specified or any part thereof shall be in arrear and unpaid for one calendar month after the same shall have become due whether the same shall have been demanded or not or if the Lessee makes default in payment of any penalty imposed under the presents or becomes insolvent or if the Lessee shall not observe and perform any of the covenants hereinbefore contained or if this lease shall become void under the provisions hereof the Lessor may notwithstanding waiver of any previous breach or right of re-entry cancel this lease and take possession of this land and the buildings and fixtures that may then be thereon and also initiate appropriate proceedings for recovery of rent, penalty or other sums payable by the Lessee to the Lessor under the presents.

III. And the Lessor doth hereby covenant with the Lessee:

- (i) that notice of the cancellation of the lease under clause I (xiii) and II hereof shall as the Lessor may deem fit either be sent by registered post to the last known address of the Lessee or his permitted assignee and the last known address of any mortgagee whose mortgage has been registered under covenant I (x) hereof or be addressed to the Lessee or his permitted assignee or mortgagee such and affixed to a conspicuous part of the property and that in case of cancellation of the lease under clause II if before any third party has acquired any rights in the said lease, the Lessee or his permitted assignee shall pay to the Lessor all rents then in arrear together with interest thereon at 1% per mensem and other sums due together with all costs incurred by the Lessor in connection with the cancellation or re-entry or subsequent disposal of the land lease and shall remedy to the satisfaction of any officer authorised by the Lessor in this behalf a breach of any other covenant which may have occurred, the Lessor may waive the forfeiture and actual possession has been taken by the Lessor to restore to the Lessee to hold for the remainder of the term of the lease upon the covenants herein contained the land together with the buildings and fixtures thereon on the date of such re-entry save such if any as may have been destroyed by fire or otherwise the Lessor not being liable for any depreciation for want of repair deterioration that may have taken place in the premises of the buildings or other things thereon therein save and except loss and damage if any maliciously done or caused by his servants or agents on such re-entry;
